Two Games in Hand Comfort to Wolves

LONDON (CP) — Wolverhampton Wanderers could only tie with Bolton 2-2 Saturday but they still held top place in the English Soccer League's first division.

Manchester United lost a chance of going to the top when it, too, was held to a scoreless deadlock by cup finalist Luton. Manchester and Wolverhampton were both weakened by the loss of players to the English team that defeated Scotland 1-0 in an international match.

Wolves and United were both left with 53 points at the head of the league, but Wolves lead on goal average. Their chances of staying on top look bright since they have four more games to play while Manchester has only two to go in the 42-game schedule.

Three other tie games cropped up in the first division. Arsenal and Chelsea were 1-1, Leicester City and West Ham 1-1 and Newcastle United and West Bromwich 2-2.

TWO GO DOWN

At the other end of the standings, Aston Villa dropped into the relegation zone by losing 4-2 to Preston North End. Two teams from the first division go down to the second division at the end of each season.

Portsmouth is certain to be one of the relegated teams. Leicester City pulled into the third-last spot through its tie with West Ham and now leads Aston Villa by one point.

CHANCES HELPED

Fulham and Sheffield Wednesday boosted their chances for promotion from the second division when Fulham defeated Huddersfield 1-0 and Sheffield downed Cardiff 3-1.

Liverpool, their closest challenger, went down 3-0 at the hands of the Rovers in Bristol.

Plymouth, with a 1-1 tie at Wrexham, and Hull City, with a 2-1 victory over Rochdale, strengthened their chances for promotion from the third division.

Shrewsbury scored a 4-3 upset over Port Vale, runaway leader of the fourth division.

In the Scottish league, Rangers missed an opportunity to clinch the championship by losing 2-0 to second-place Hearts. They needed only one point to take the crown.

Unimpressive Win By England Side

LONDON (AP) — England's centre forward Bobbie Charlton whipped in a goal in the 60th minute and gave England a 1-0 victory over Scotland in an International soccer match at Wembley Stadium Saturday.

The Scots showed little fire in the match played before a crowd of 100,000 and left fans thinking that a big reshuffle will be made in the team before they play West Germany in Glasgow May 6.

The game marked Billy Wright's 100th appearance for England and his 85th time as captain.

England's winning goal was a beauty. Inside right Peter Broadbent sent right winger Bryan Douglas away with a perfect pass down the wing. Douglas whipped in a high centre and Charlton leaped high over the Scottish defenders and nodded the ball into the net.

Charlton, who usually plays inside forward for Manchester United, threw the Scots into confusion with his constant bustling tactics.

Scotland's inside forward John Dick got the ball in the net shortly before half-time but was ruled off-side.

Color Bar Cancels Soccer

CAPETOWN (Reuters) — A soccer game between a Brazilian team including Negroes and a South African side was cancelled Saturday after complaints of racial discrimination.

Cancellation of the game, a few hours before it was due to be played, followed cabled instructions from President Juscelino Kubitschek of Brazil.

The four Negro members of the team, which is en route to Portuguese East Africa, did not land at Capetown when the other members disembarked from their ocean liner. The Negroes were told they could not play against white South African teams.

'Hot' Seats For Some Ball Fans

PORTLAND (AP)—Officials of the Portland Beavers plan to keep a special watch on 597 seats when the Pacific Coast League baseball team opens its home season here May 1.

But there's a good chance the seats will be empty.

Officials of the club told police that thieves broke into the team's office here and stole 597 reserve and box seat tickets.

The thieves were very selective, officials said. The tickets stolen were for seats scattered throughout the Multnomah Stadium.

And, added assistant general manager Bill Sayles, "we know what tickets were stolen."

How Do You Get $100,000.00 Worth of Pleasure Boats for One Auction?

"That was the question we asked Mr. Larry Wood, auctioneer in charge for Maynard & Son's forthcoming Marine Auction at Canoe Cove Marina.

"The answer seemed to be a lot of appraisals, interviews and organization. "I suppose we showed the public at our recent small craft auction in our salesrooms, that the buyers like a large variety to select from," stated Mr. Wood. "We offered 51 smaller craft and 3,000 people turned out to view them with 610 returning for the auction."

"We appreciate the confidence the owners and the buyers have in our operation, particularly the buyers," Mr. Wood remarked.

Asked if every statement was backed by the pioneer auction firm, Mr. Wood stated that "where refunds are deemed necessary due to mirepresentation, no member of our staff has to consult anyone."

Crowds are expected to converge on Canoe Cove Marina tomorrow and all next week in preparation for bidding on the 25 boats which will go under the auctioneer's hammer starting at 1 p.m. on Saturday, April 18.

They tell me that each boat will be cruising up and down while the bidding is on, so I guess you can buy a boat Saturday and take the family out Sunday. Anyway, I'll be there.
